BORE LOVE LOCK OF EMPEROR.

Coin Struck During Napoleon III's Reign Now Valuable.

There is a singular story in connection with a coin of the third Napoleon. While Louis Napoleon was prince president of France, just before he made himself emperor, a decree was issued ordering a five-franc piece to be coined bearing his image.

The dies were made, and one coin was struck off as a sample and sent to the prince president for his approval. But some time passed before he examined it. When at last he gave it his attention he was annoyed to find that he had been represented on the coin with a love lock, or hooked lock of hair on the temple, which he actually did wear at that period, but which he thought unsuitable to so dignified and permanent a representation of himself as an effigy on a coin.

The prince president sent for the director of the mint and ordered him to remove the love lock. Then he found that his silence with regard to the piece had been taken for approval, and that the stamping of the coins had begun. The work was stopped, and the image deprived of its undignified lock. But the 23 coins that had already been struck off were not destroyed and are now regarded as of great value.

The Public Eye.

In a little more we came to an open space, very thronged.
"The Public Eye!" shouted the megaphone man of our party.
There were some curious people within the space, but even more curious were those just outside.

Of these latter we thought certain women especially interesting; they were busily neglecting their families in order to get into the Public Eye. A pathos attached to another group of women who had been in the Public Eye and could never be happy out of it, though they couldn't in the least tell why.

Positively funny were a few men who kept trying, by a variety of droll devices, to break into the Public Eye.
"Vice-presidential candidates!" our megaphone man explained.—Puck.

gian steamer, which will make regular trips between New York and Santo freights about 10 per cent. less than the present rates.

NEW FIRE STATION.

Electric Floor-Finishing Machine at Work This Week.
An electric floor finishing machine capable of doing an amount of work equal to six men is being used in preparing the surface of the hard pine floors at the new central fire station.

A strong little motor drives a span of sandpaper covered rollers attached to the machine at a high rate of speed, and the machine is pushed about the floor by the operator, with surprisingly satisfactory results. The floors will be finished this week. The general work on the building is going along slowly, and a great deal remains to be accomplished before the building is ready for occupancy. The stairways are yet to be built, and other inside finishing work awaits the attention of the carpenters. The building is going to make the department a convenient house when it is ready, but the appearance of the main floor, where the residents in all the places are to be greatly improved by ceiling the top and sides. This it is understood is not to be done because of the expense entailed.

TRAIN CONNECTION

Will Be Improved if Special Committee Succeeds.

The transportation committee of the board of trade, on instruction from that body, is to take up the matter of securing a greater certainty of connections between trains and south bound electric cars out of Putnam. Since the train service was reduced by the N. Y.
N. H. & H. railroad on the Norwich branch some time since, a large people have been far more dependent on the electric service to get from Putnam to Danielson, and this also applies to residents in all the places on the trolley line between Putnam and Central Village. As at present arranged, in relation to trains from the west on the Midland division into Putnam, the steam and trolley timetable allow only a minute or two to catch a south bound car; so if the train happens to be a little late the passengers for nearby towns to the south are obliged to wait an hour for a car. The committee will endeavor to secure the agreement of the trolley company to hold for ten minutes at the Putnam station such cars as would permit home-bound patrons to connect if the arrangements can be secured.

PARK FOR $100.

Town May Secure Old Furnace and Environment at Bargain Rates.

If the citizens of Killingly want a beautiful woodland park of exceptional natural beauty, one is to be had at a real bargain sale price. It is not less a place than the Old Furnace grounds, with a poetic brook and silvery waterfall tucked away in a pretty stretch of woods among the rugged hills just east of Danielson. William K. Pike owns the tract, which contains about eight acres, and is offering it for sale purpose mentioned, for just an even hundred dollars. The matter has been referred by the board of trade to its park improvements committee, of which Dr. Elmer Robinson is chairman. It is understood that three more acres adjoining can be secured for little or nothing from the Wood estate, making a total area of about eleven acres for a park. A plan has been suggested whereby one dollar each be secured to donate one dollar each towards purchasing the tract. For years and years the Old Furnace has been a favorite place for picnic parties, annual church dinners and various other outings.

lyn, Conn. to Danielson, has been let vey of North Sterling from July 1, 1909,

PUTNAM.

Charles Miller, William Newman and C. Adelard Dupres held for Bradley Burglaries—Henry Morse Sent to Jail—Lincoln Honored—Social and Personal News.

Charles Miller, William Newman and Adelard Dupres, charged with complicity in the recent breaking and entering of the George L. Bradley residence at Pomfret recently, were arraigned before Justice John H. Lar-ned at Pomfret Thursday morning.
Miller pleaded guilty and was bound over to the superior court under bonds of $500 which he was unable to furnish; he was committed to Brooklyn Jail.

Newman, who is Miller's pal, was arrested late Wednesday evening in a shanty used by Italians, who are engaged in construction work on a dam near Cotton's bridge in the town of Pomfret. Newman, who is in the neighborhood of 50 years of age, claims Boston as his home. He has been working at the dam for about a week.
He pleaded not guilty, but probable cause was found for holding him, and his bond was fixed at $500, in default of which we went to jail.

Adelard Dupres also pleaded not guilty, but he was also held. His bond, fixed at $500, was supplied by P. M. Leclaire of Putnam, and the prisoner was released.

Miller told the officers that all the breaks in which he figured were committed in the day time. On his first break he found keys that made entrance easy for his later visits.
Miller denies that he entered the place more than three times and the evidence is such as to indicate that the handsome residence has been preyed upon by more than one gang of thieves in fact, this is now established, as William Lee, now in jail at Brooklyn, is held on his confession of having robbed the place.

STEALING COATS

Habit of Henry Morse—Wanted in Webster—in Jail for 120 Days.

Henry Morse, 34, of Pawtucket, alias Henry Hebbard, alias James Myers, got a lengthy jail sentence from Judge Russell in the city court Thursday for his overcoat-stealing tendencies.
Morse was arraigned for stealing two overcoats, the property of Victor Rayno, the proprietor of the Rayno saloon, and incidentally Morse got a $25 fine for buying drinks for Rayno, who is a blacklisted man. Aside from the fine, Morse's jail sentence on the various counts total 120 days and costs of the case. The coats were recovered and returned to their owners. Morse is also wanted in Webster, where he stole another overcoat, which was returned Thursday from Putnam. Morse was employed by T.

Dwyer of Webster, out of pity, to drive a hack. Morse was without an overcoat, and he was loaned one by an employe at the stable. Morse drove the hack, collected the fare of 13, deserted his horse and alighted with the coat. The Webster official will do some more things to him after he serves his time at Brooklyn.

Forster-Gascolgne Engagement An- nounced.

Miss Addie Gascolgne of South Main street entertained sixteen friends at a tea Wednesday afternoon. During which the engagement was announced of Miss Addie Gascolgne, daughter of Mrs. Carrie Gascolgne, to Frank Forster of Toledo, Ohio. The announcement was made in a novel manner, the hostess receiving a telegram during the tea. After due inspection and examination by the family it was read to the guests. In this telegram from Dan Cupid the engagement was announced, also the month in which the wedding bells would ring. The heartiest good wishes of all present were bestowed upon Miss Gascolgne, the only regret of her friends being that she will soon make her home many miles from Putnam.

The house was decorated with hearts and the favors were heart-shaped boxes.

Lincoln Evening.

Mrs. Helen Willey of Prospect street entertained the members of the O. M. club by an evening with Abra-
